ST JOHN BAPTIST CHURCH. The Sunday school of the St. John Baptist Church continues to grow under the able management of our Supt. Dea. J. A. Turner. We had an all day rally Sunday, in the interest of our most worthy pastor,, Rev. W. H. Whittaker to assist in getting him an auto. We were blessed with three beautiful sermons. Rev. Wm. Whiteside filled the pulpit at 11:30 o'clock Arthur, Jr. He wants a drum, horn and preached an able well spoken sermon, at 3 o'clock the pastor filled the rostum and delivered a sermon that was spiritually and intelligently rendered, and again at 8 o'clock he filled his post,, and poured out another wonderful sermon from the beautiful text, Ezekiel 37: 4, subject "O ye dry bones hear ye the word of the Lord." We had several visiting members and ministers. The distinguished and well equipped Rev. E. W. Hawthorne. D. D., was with us and will preach for us Thursday night, Dec. 20. Come and hear him. Visitors always welcome. Rev. W. H. Whittaker, Pastor, Dea. J. A. Turner, Supt. Maggie Pillow, Secretary.

She gave a splendid message, telling about the great W. C. T. U. convention in Washington, D. C., which she had recently attended, as well as speaking about the encouraging features of the temperance cause generally. On Monday night, Dec. 17th Mrs. Peterson spoke at a call meeting of the W. C. T. U. held at the Fireside School headquarters, 612 Gay street Again her message was most helpful as she outlined plans of work for the local Union to follow and spoke of the various departments of the National W. C. T. U. A generous offering was received which was a slight expression of the esteem in which Mrs. Peterson is held by her friends in Nashville. During Mrs. Peterson's stay in the city she has been busy visiting schools and other places where she had the opportunity. Roger Williams, Walden and Fisk University have been blest with her presence, also State Normal A. and I. While in Nashville Mrs. Peterson has made her headquar ters at the Fireside School where all have been helped by her consecrated personality.

The Galeda Class of Pleasant Green Baptist Church met at the residence of Mrs. Samuel Duncan, 1205 18th Ayenue, N. The meeting was opened by the president with eight members present. Prayer was opened by the teacher and Superintendent of the Sunday school. After which the roll was called and each member responded with dues. After which the esson was taken up and discussed for thirty minutes by the teacher. The lesson was discussed beautifully and many interesting thoughts were brought out. The class then closed with the Galeda Motto. After which the hostess served a delicious two course menu. The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Carrie Dickerson, Almeda Street.
